Lost in Translation:
Cross Border Considerations in California Litigation

36th Annual Seminar | October 1-4, 2009

THE BROADMOOR
COLORADO SPRINGS

36th Annual Seminar | October 1-4, 2009

ASSOCIATION OF BUSINESS TRIAL LAWYERS

10 Hours MCLE Credit with 1 Hour Ethics | Register Online: www.abtl.org/annualseminar
THE CURRENT ECONOMIC CRISIS shows that even the most local problem has international implications. With the progressive development of international trade, transnational businesses, and economic globalization, litigators are increasingly confronted with cross-border legal issues. It is now commonplace to depose a foreign witness, translate discovery, prepare letters rogatory, manage parallel proceedings, have a multi-cultural jury, or collect assets overseas. As a result, ABTL’s annual seminar is a must for every litigator. Even if you don’t face these issues now, you will soon. For this case, or your next one, don’t get Lost in Translation. Join ABTL’s distinguished international faculty of judges, lawyers, in-house counsel, and experts as they educate on current case law, trends, and challenges of cross-border litigation, as well as share real-world tactics and strategies.

I. Attitudes Across Latitudes: Cross-Border Litigation Challenges
  - Choice-of-Law, Forum Selection, and Personal Jurisdiction
  - Ethical and Criminal Considerations
  - International Implications of the Current Economic Crisis

II. Cross-Border Litigation: The In-House Counsel Perspective
- Patricia H. Benson, Christian Lahnstein, Carol C. Lam, Beth Colum Ozmun, Hilary S. Ware
  - Issues Affecting Selection of Outside Counsel
  - Litigation Strategies and Current Budgetary Considerations
  - Insurance Coverage for Cross-Border Disputes

III. Parallel Proceedings: Peering Into The Looking Glass?
- William C. Bollard, Jeffrey R. Chanin, Alan Cox, David J. DiMeglio, Martin J. Foley, Hon. M. Margaret McKeown, Hon. James V. Selna
  - Are US Courts Becoming the Courthouse of the World?
  - Forum Non Conveniens, Comity and Jurisdictional Privileges
  - “Independent” Judicial Experts in Foreign Proceedings
  - Anti-Suit Injunctions and Stays

IV. Cross-Border Discovery: Diplomacy, Devices, And Delivery
  - E-Discovery and Obligations for Data Preservation
  - Conflicting Standards of Privacy and Privilege
  - Letters Rogatory, Foreign Depositions; and Rule 30(b)(6) Issues

V. Cultural Considerations: Lost In Translation
- Craig I. Celniker, Hon. Jacqueline Connor, David Graeven, Hon. Susan Y. Illston, Guillermo Marrero, Robert A. Mittelstaedt, Jeffrey W. Shields
  - Jury Selection, Foreign Witnesses, and Transnational Parties
  - The Role of Press and Media
  - Mediation Strategies, Foreign Experts, and Local Counsel

VI. Cross-Border Collections: You Won . . . Now What?
  - How to Collect / Enforce Foreign Judgments
  - How to Collect / Enforce Judgments Internationally
  - International Bankruptcy – Chapter 15
