FBI v. Apple

Balancing Privacy, Security & Victims' Rights

Join us for a stimulating panel discussion with experts who were involved first hand in this cutting-edge legal issue of national importance that was recently addressed here in the Central District of California and remains unresolved.

Nate Cardozo

Senior Staff Attorney on the Electronic Frontier Foundation's digital civil liberties team. The EFF is the leading nonprofit organization defending civil liberties in the digital world. Mr. Cardozo and a team of EFF attorneys filed an amicus brief on behalf of the EFF and 46 technologists, researchers, and cryptographers supporting Apple.

Gary Fagan

Chief Deputy District Attorney in the Specialized Prosecutions Division for the San Bernardino County District Attorney. Mr. Fagan filed an amicus brief supporting the U.S. government on behalf of the San Bernardino County District Attorney, who represents The People of the State of California.

Joseph Gratz

Partner at the law firm of Durie Tangri in San Francisco. Mr. Gratz also teaches Cyberlaw at UC Hastings College of Law and is a frequent commentator on issues of copyright and internet law. Mr. Gratz and Durie Tangri filed an amicus brief on behalf of many law professors in support of Apple.

Melissa Meister

Attorney at recently launched law firm of Larson O'Brien, which focuses on high stakes trials and appeals. Ms. Meister, who is a former federal prosecutor, and Larson O'Brien filed an amicus brief on behalf of several individuals who lost close relatives during the San Bernardino massacre supporting the U.S. government.
