Lunch and Program

ARBITRATION MYTHBUSTERS?

Are arbitrations designed to be long and expensive (or what can be done to limit length and control costs)?

Do arbitrators always split the baby (or how can decisiveness be encouraged)?

Are pretrial motions worthless (or do they serve important purposes)?

Hear from experienced arbitrators at each of the major arbitration associations in the Los Angeles area, who will address these issues directly and share their insights on how attorneys can improve their chances of prevailing in arbitration.
