The Art of Jury Selection

Hon. Rita J. Miller

Judge, Los Angeles Superior Court

Judge Miller will provide civil jury selection suggestions from the perspective of a highly experienced trial jurist.

Jerome J. Ringler, Esq.

Ringler Kearney Alvarez LLP

Jerome Ringler is a premier plaintiff's trial attorney, having tried to verdict over 75 civil cases. He limits his practice to the areas of business torts, class actions and catastrophic personal injury.

Bart H. Williams, Esq.

Munger, Tolles & Olson LLP

Bart Williams has an active defense trial practice involving complex commercial contract and business disputes, as well as white collar crime issues. He has represented corporate clients in the entertainment, securities, aerospace, pharmaceutical and energy industries.

The art of jury selection is difficult to master. Over the years, the tenor and scope of jury voir dire has evolved, with new thoughts about jury selection and psychology. ABTL's July 15, 2008, lunch program will present a highly experienced panel, who will provide a lecture and jury selection demonstration. The program should be of interest to the new and seasoned attorney.

The topics and demonstration will include a review of pertinent statutes, court rules and judicial administration standards; jury questionnaires; pretrial conferences; time limits; judicial questioning; appropriate attorney questioning; objections; challenges for cause; peremptory challenges; alternate jury selection; Wheeler motions; and much more.
